VOLUME XLIV

April 2017

NUMBER 9

For three years twelve men worked, walked, ate, prayed, and shared life with Jesus. They left jobs, homes, families to be with this special man. There are many times when the Gospel writers let us know, despite three years with Jesus, "They didn't understand" what was going on around them.

Have you ever felt that way? I have! There are times when I begin to wonder, "Lord, do you know where you're taking me, because I haven't the foggiest idea where we are or what we are doing?"

And then I remember the words Jesus shared with those twelve as he was preparing them for his death and resurrection saying (John 14), "Have I been with you so long, and yet you do not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father; how can you say, 'Show us the Father'?... "These things I have spoken to you, while I am still with you. But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I go away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I go to the Father; for the Father is greater than I."

Because of our relationship with Jesus, we don't have to be in control of the where, why, when, or how of our lives. The Spirit of God is at work in and through us. The Spirit of the living God is living with us,

There's an old story of the boy who stood on a sidewalk, waiting on a bus. A man walking by spotted the boy, and gave him some gentle instruction. "Son," he said, "if you're waiting on the bus, you need to move to the street corner. That's where the bus stops for passengers."

"It's OK," said the boy. "I'll just wait right here, and the bus will stop for me."

The man repeated his argument, but the boy never moved. Just then, the bus appeared. Amazingly, the bus pulled over to where the boy stood, and the child hopped on. The man on the sidewalk stood speechless. The boy turned around in the doorway and said, "Mister, I knew the bus would stop here, because the bus driver is my dad!"

When you have a family relationship with the bus driver, you don't need a bus stop. If you've given your heart to the King of Kings, you're in a royal family of unspeakable proportions. (Story by Fred Markes <http://www.sermoncentral.com/illustrations/sermon-illustration-sermon-central-staff-stories-easterpalmsunday-81353.asp>, accessed 3/22/17)

As the disciples waited behind locked doors on the night of Resurrection Day, they were afraid, "SCARED", of what awaited them in an unknown future. Then Jesus came and stood among them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you."

We, as his other disciples, have a relationship with the "bus driver." He comes to us with comfort, guidance, and power. We have a relationship with the one who holds the future within His hands. "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." May every Sunday, in fact every day, be a day of resurrection for each of us. Happy Easter!

Missions

LENT is in full swing and this year we are proudly supporting our own folks going on Mission Trips this summer - our Youth are going to Canada and we have a group returning to STRONG MISSIONS in Costa Rica for a second year. This year we are very excited to have our Pastor and his wife Patt joining this group. We are grateful God has us partnering our Mt Olivet home folks to reach out and share Christ to others around the world.

We wish to thank RITA SHAFER for her work on our Lenten Devotional this year. What a blessing it is to have someone take on such a big task and we know how important prayer is so it's nice to have a template to pray specifically for our Mission needs across the board.

Fundraisers for both Mission groups will be on the immediate horizon so keep your eyes peeled and we hope you will help out with these fundraisers any way that you can. They say it takes a village to get anything worthwhile done and we know Mt Olivet is just that village.

May God bless you during this time of Lent and bring you to a closer relationship with our Savior, Jesus Christ.

PLEASE NOTE that if you have any fresh flowers from your yard, please bring to the church on Sat., April 15th. There will be buckets of water on the Fellowship Hall porch to hold your flowers. These flowers will be used to decorate the outside wooden cross on Easter morning.

BAKE GOODS NEEDED

The Costa Rica Mission team is in need of volunteers who will bake their specialty for our EASTER BAKE SALE scheduled at GRITS GRILL on Saturday, April 15 beginning at 8 am. This is an awesome opportunity for us to raise major funds for the Mission God has us participating in with Strong Missions in August. We would love to have cakes; whole and half, and pies as well as breads. These things seem to sell well to our vacationers here with their families. We will have sign up sheets in the Sunday School classes and on the bulletin board near the office. We thank you in advance for partnering with us on this event.

YMCA Youth Ministry

April is an exciting month as we look ahead to the celebration of Easter, a wonderful reminder of all that Jesus did for us in His perfect life, substitutionary death, and miraculous resurrection from the dead. This beautiful story is at the core of our faith, and it gives us a reason to celebrate Who God is and what He has done. This month, I encourage you to read Ephesians 2:1-10 and reflect on the transformation that God has provided for you if you have placed your faith in Jesus Christ. He offers hope where there was only despair, purpose where there was only confusion, and life where there was only death. We serve a powerful, Holy, and loving God, and He is good!

Below you will find information about upcoming trips and special events, service projects, and mission trip fundraisers for the Cove Student Ministry. Please contact Drew if you have any questions.

Each and every day I am reminded of Gods love in many ways. Through kind words, new growth on the earth, and smiling faces around me. As we once again enter into this Easter season I would encourage you to think about the ways that Gods love is shown to you each day and has been shown in the past.

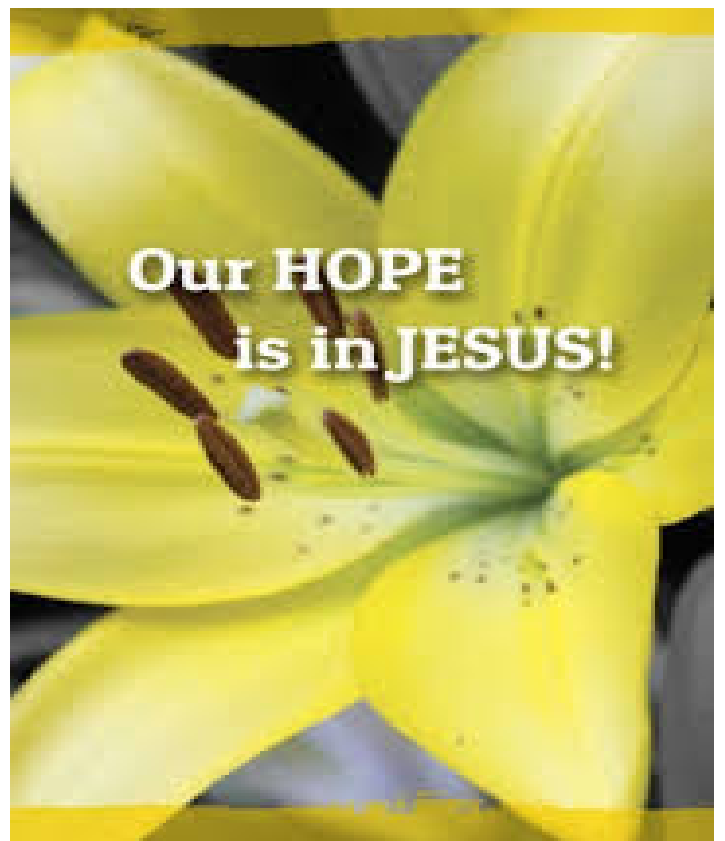

Heath Balltzglier penned a fantastic song called Love Come Down. The verses speak of Gods love, how we were shackled by sin and God heard our cry for help. How Jesus rescued us through His grace and death on the cross. And, how because of an empty grave we are free from the bondage of sin and death. Amidst all of these reminders of God's love streams the chorus which reads:

I will sing forever of Your love come down
With my hands to heaven, shout Your praises loud
I was lost in darkness when You pulled me out
I will sing forever of Your love come down.

Take a moment to praise the Lord for the marvelous things he has done in your life.

Join us on Palm Sunday, April 9 at 10:00 AM as the Chancel Choir presents the Easter Cantata: A Living Hope. You will enjoy familiar tunes and lyrics as we celebrate the power of the cross. Christ triumphed over death, and through His resurrection, those who follow Him have a new and Living Hope!

Children's Ministry

I love the story of Easter. It has all the drama and emotions such as joy, confusion, drama, sadness and overwhelming happiness. The story of Easter for me starts with the praise of Jesus as he rides into Jerusalem on a donkey. It continues with the Last Supper where the disciples do not understand Jesus. It becomes very sad with the arrest, trial, and ultimately the crucifixion of Jesus on the cross. But oh the joy of Easter Day when the tomb is empty and He has risen!!! This is the story all kids should know. There are books, YouTube videos, Resurrection Eggs, and websites that have this beautiful story just for young people. Get on your phone or computer and google "Easter Story for kids". Search and find one to read/ show to your child/grandchild and let them feel the love of God in this special story for this special season.

Evangelism

As you are reading this, we have had a successful Singspiration Concert with 14 talented groups bringing us a night of musical testimony. Thank you all for your support.

Our next event is a biggy. Hold onto your seats! The Rocky Hock Playhouse actors will be coming to Mt. Olivet UMC on April 29th to perform their Easter show “The Stone Rolled Away”. We will have a covered dish dinner at 5:30 PM with the performance beginning at 7:00 PM in the sanctuary. We are truly blessed to have these talented people to perform for us. Please get the word out into the community. Bring your friends, family, believers, and non-believers for a night you will remember for a long time.

Mrs. Cromley’s Famous Homemade Peanut Clusters, CD’s and DVD’s of the musicals will be sold in the lobby of the Educational Building during intermission and directly after the show. I vouch that the Peanut Clusters are absolutely wonderful. A love offering will also be taken.

The Stone Rolled Away - “Hosanna, what a Savior! The earth rejoiced when Jesus was born and wept at his death. But, because the stone was rolled away, we’re singing again today. The life, death and resurrection of Jesus will come alive to you in this new musical by Gloria Emmerich”.

We are praying you will support the Evangelism Committee, the church, and the community, by coming out on April 29th for a great dinner and play.

*Hosanna,
Savior!*
