

Mount Olivet United Methodist Church

July 17, 2016

Ninth Sunday After Pentecost

*As you prepare for worship, enter the Sanctuary in reverence, worship in the spirit of humility.
And leave it not without a prayer to God for yourself, for those who minister, and for those who worship here.*

Weekly Bible Study

Men's Bible Study meets at 7:00 PM Monday nights. Please join us as we study Genesis. The only book you need is the Bible and no sign up is required. Come explore God's Word with us!

Mission Opportunities

Roanoke Island Food Pantry - No items to ask for this week! The Pantry runneth over, and our hearts are overflowing with gratitude to God and all of our supporters. The season when more flows out than comes in is coming, but for now there are no particular items that we need to ask for. Please know donations are always welcome but we have no specific items we need.

We all have been moved by the loss of life and property due to intense flooding in parts of West Virginia. Our Conference can best help by supporting UMCOR with monetary donations towards its US Disaster Response ADVANCE #901670 UMCOR donations can be made online or through your local church treasury.

Church News

Due to the retirement of Tina Hodgson, Mount Olivet United Methodist Church now has an opening for a Part-Time Director of Children's Ministry and is seeking qualified applicants from within our church family to apply. Full job description and job applications are available in the church office.

In the next few weeks we will begin the first phase of work on the refurbishment of the exterior of the Sanctuary. The scope of work is to properly seal the arched stained glass windows and to replace the lap siding on the main entrance side of the Sanctuary after scaffolding that side. We will thoroughly inspect the upper steeple structure and siding for rot damage and replace as necessary. Larry Franklin, exterior project manager Forward in Faith

Announcements

Laura Long will be having her annual summer recital Sunday, July 31st, 4:00 pm at Mount Olivet United Methodist Church. All are invited to attend.

8:30 AM

God's house shall be filled with music, with song, with praise and prayer, and the burdens of life shall be lifted from all who enter here.

WELCOME

BENEDICTION

** Prayer at the Chancel Rail: If you would like the pastor to pray with you, please join him at the front during the closing song. We also have lay prayer partners available to pray with you, as well.

Sermon Summary:

The Story of Mary & Martha. As we continue the series on Building our Relationship with God, we place this story within its context. It becomes clear that Jesus isn't saying that we ought to give up serving and become monks on a hillside removed from the world.

1. Martha wasn't doing anything wrong in her serving. She had lost her bearings, her sense of priorities. She'd become so caught up in her busyness She could no longer see anything except what was immediately in front of her.
2. Jesus isn't setting prayer and Scripture reading over and against Christian service and action. Rather, in this text, our Lord reminds us in this both/and. What should come first? We need to stop and listen to the voice of God.
3. The radical teaching of Jesus is that it's in the midst of our most frenzied time of activity that we need to stop and listen.
