99 for the ONE - a Virginia Beach based Mobile Mission to the Homeless is asking that we collect ADULT MEN & WOMEN'S Athletic shoes and flip flops as well as Backpacks and zippered totes. They provide clothes and toiletries etc to the homeless from their Mission Truck and often the folks they are ministering to do not have decent bags to keep their stuff in. We will be collecting these items through the end of June - there will be a box set up in the lobby of the Educational building. Items can be new or gently used. Rachel & Jeremiah Calling all kids grades 3rd -5th! Join us July 26-28 for the Summer Mission Camp

Not only will your child learn about the multiple ways missions can be enacted in a community, but they will also take part in these acts of service in Manteo. Activities include treats for the SPCA shelter, art activities for the Monarch community and scripture shells for the beach. For more information contact olivetskids@mountolivetumc.org.
