Mount Olivet is hosting an Advanced Lay Servant Ministries Training on September 16; 9 am – 5 pm. Lay Speakers need to update credentials every three years and these 10 hour courses are for those interested in certification as Lay Servant Ministers. Classes available include either; Afire with God (Stewardship) or Discover Your Spiritual Gifts led by John & Patty Dutton.

Signup today online at <https://beacondistrictnc.org/september-16th-beacon-district-lay-servant-ministry-course/> or stop by the church office; registration will be available until Monday, 09/11/17 @ 11 pm. *Note: enrollment periods end prior to the week of the class so you have enough time to complete the pre-class readings.

Help is needed at our sister Food Pantries in Salvo & Ocracoke.

The loss of power has greatly increased demands in Salvo & Ocracoke. Also, Ocracoke has an ongoing need to better serve the residents! If you have food, other items (listed below), or a monetary donation that you wish to give; please bring them to our Pantry marked for Salvo/Ocracoke. The Community needs : Non-perishable food items, Pet foods, Baby needs. Thank you for your support of our sister Food Pantries, Bob & Angela Noffsinger

 Nannie Midgett Circle will have their "Fish Fry" this Monday, August 21st 6:30 PM at Byron & Sandra Sawyer's home. Please bring a salad or a dessert. Contact Janice O'Neal if you have a question.

Sunday, August 27 during the 8:30 & 11:00 services.

It's back to school time and Mount Olivet would like to bless your backpack for the upcoming school year. All students and educational staff are invited to bring their backpacks, briefcases, tote bags, or tool belts to worship NEXT Sunday, August 27th.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS WANTED—preferably alive and kicking, with or without super powers! Please let children's ministry know if you are able to join us as we minister to our children.

Stepping Out of the Boat, kick-off weekend

September 8 and 9th, Mt. Olivet will host Rev. David & Irene Brownlee to lead our kick-off experience. We will begin the event with supper Friday at 6:30 pm followed by the 1st of 3 sessions on God's vision for Mt. Olivet. Saturday morning begins at 8:00 am with breakfast followed by 2 sessions that will conclude at noon.

Over the last few months we have begun discussions with five key groups, of each age and stage we feel God is calling us to serve; Children, Youth, Young Adults, Adults, Senior Adults, plus Greeting & Welcoming. All those who feel a passion toward one of these groups and all members of Administrative Council, are invited and encouraged to visit the church office to register for this two day event.

David & Irene live in Carolina Beach and have served the North Carolina and Mississippi Conferences as pastor, leader, visionary, worship leader and as the head of the Academy of Lay Excellence; we are excited for them to join us for this first piece of Stepping Out of the Boat and following God's vision for Mt. Olivet.
