Sermon Series Concludes Today

Through the series, "Greater Gifts" we reflected on God's grace for us and how we use our gifts for others. Last week's sermon, Being Needy taught us to rely on each and use our gifts to come together as one body. Today we conclude with a message titled, "Love."

Training for Usher or Communion Server

TODAY, at 9:30 AM and 12:00 PM, Sanctuary

If you are interested in serving at Mount Olivet as an usher or communion server, today is your lucky day! Thank you for your willingness to serve! We appreciate you utilizing your gifts to serve with us.

TODAY, at 4:00 PM, Sanctuary

Learn to operate the soundboard today in Soundboard 101. Attaining this skill is not only a great way to serve but you may receive paid compensation for some events!

Thursday, February 7 at 4:00 PM, Upstairs

GriefShare will continue this week upstairs in Room 202. Receive help and support as you navigate life after loss. Regular attendance is not required, all are welcome.

A special thank you to my wonderful church family for their prayers, meals, cards and support during my recent illness.

-Rufus Hopkins

Life Group Weekly Highlight: Healing Prayer

"We need to realize that healing is not just an option for those Christians who gravitate to 'charismatic' spirituality- rather, it is essential, so essential that it is a matter of life and death both for individuals and the church." - Francis MacNutt

This course designed by Christian Healing Ministries, who are dedicated to the practice and teaching of healing prayer with a vision to make Christian healing prayer a way of life in families, churches, and medical professionals. The course of 13 session offers a scriptural basis for God's gift of healing prayer and provides a foundational, practical approach to becoming an effective prayer minister.
