Be Strong and Courageous: A Study of the Book of Joshua

Join us Wednesday mornings for a series exploring the life of Joshua and his being called up following Moses death to lead the Israelites into the promised land. Joshua is told, "Be strong and courageous." We have been called up just like Joshua and we are told the same, "Be strong and courageous." Join us on this 5-6 week journey with God, Joshua, and the Israelites as we explore the ways that we can lead in our church and community with great strength and courage that comes from God.

One Faithful Promise: The Wesleyan Covenant for Renewal

The Wesley Covenant for Renewal will take us on a journey to refocus ourselves and our work in this world on the God who reaches out to us and calls us by name. We will explore what it means to confide in God, compose our Spirit, Claim the covenant, choose faithfulness, connect to God in prayer. It is my prayer that at the end of this we will through prayer and accountability not only offer our hands and hearts but also our will to God in one faithful promise.

Honor God With Your Bodies (1 Corinthians 6:19-20): Six Weeks to Better Health

Teresa Griffin will share her food journey experiences and focus on diseases of affluence including heart disease, cancer, and Type 2 diabetes. Teresa recently earned a plant-based nutrition certification from Cornell University.

Grief Share

Grief Share is a friendly, caring group of people who will walk alongside you through one of life's most difficult experiences. You don't have to go through the grieving process alone. This video based discussion explores the grief process and the various stages of grief. Through this group you will learn from others experiences and through all the conversations see how God is always with us.

Justice Seeking Jesus

Have you wondered what it means to be a Justice Seeking follower of Jesus? If you've ever wondered this, or had questions about what the Bible says about Racism, Sexism, Homophobia, Human Sexuality, Islamophobia or Immigration reform, Justice Seeking Jesus attempts to answer the question of what it means as followers of Christ to live in the world in a way that promotes equity and justice for all God's people.

Save the Date!
