Mission Christmas Joy

As our Christmas Outreach; we will be collecting donations to purchase $100 gift certificates for Groceries and/or Hardware for some of the folks on Ocracoke from the Island's Variety Store. It's a great way to meet immediate and longer term needs by putting money back into their economy. Any donation is tax deductible and can be made through Mt. Olivet. This will be collected through Christmas Eve to be distributed as a New Years gift.

Poinsettias

All Red poinsettias can be picked up after the 11:00 AM service Sunday, December 22. When picking up, please leave the plastic saucers they are sitting in. These are used each year for lilies and poinsettias. If you are unable to pick your poinsettias up, they will be in the Educational Building lobby.

Blood Drive

Hey everyone! I am doing a Blood Drive January 8th and I would love it if you all came to support me. Ever since I was young I wanted to donate blood and help those in hospitals because I have been both on the receiving end and the giving end. Donating blood feels like a small gift from us but one person's donation can save up to 3 lives. January is also a month when the Red Cross is trying to replenish their supplies after a decrease in donations over the holidays. Every donation counts. Thank you for your support. ~ Karynna Culpepper

Purchase a special Christmas card & $10 will be donated to feed needy families in Costa Rica. Laney started this journey during her mission trip to Costa Rica last summer. Since then, she has partnered with Strong Missions to keep this program going year round. She is feeding 5 families monthly, and you can help. Contact Laney Waughtel or visit the bulletin board outside the church office for more information.

A Note from Stewardship

Thank you to all who have responded with their Stewardship Pledge Cards for 2020. We continue to accept pledge cards, and we join your prayers as you pray over what God is leading you to give. We have received 41% of the 2020 budget.
Pledges received to date: 66 totaling $250,738.00

GriefShare Opportunity

GriefShare will start
Thursday, January 9, 2020.
